Nez Perce County Clerk of the District Court Warns of Scam Spoofing Court Phone Numbers

Patty Weeks, Nez Perce County Clerk of Court, is informing the public about a telephone scam where aggressive calls are being made by scammers posing as court employees.

Your caller ID may show the call is coming from a court phone number, this is a modern day con of spoofing a phone number.

These callers claim that a court fine is due and must be paid immediately over the phone.

Nez Perce County will not telephone you to demand payment for a fine. A written notice is sent to individuals with past due fines.

If you get a phone call from someone claiming to be from the court demanding payment, HANG UP immediately. Under no circumstances should you talk to them and give them any personal information.
